One City, One Book
Teen Events

Film: Eco-Rap (2010)
Thursday, September 3 at 7 pm
McGirt-Horton Branch

Thursday, October 1 at 7 pm
Vance Chavis Branch
This film presents ecological issues from the viewpoint of a multi-ethnic group of young people as they learn about local environmental hazards, and express their views using rap music. Audience members are invited to present an original rap or poem on the environment after the screening (film not rated, 39 min.)

High School Environmental Service Learning Program
Monday evenings, 6 - 8 pm, Kathleen Clay Library
Students will be helping with One City One Book events, Big Sweep, Neighborwoods, and Earth Day at Kathleen Clay Library. Students will meet environmental experts, attend field trips, and use technology to learn about the environment. For more information, e-mail Melanie.buckingham@greensboro-nc.gov

Big Sweep Greensboro Saturday, September 12 from 9 am - 12 pm
Show your concern for parks and neighborhoods and pick up litter to create cleaner waterways.
Register with Greensboro Beautiful, to volunteer: http://greensborobeautiful.org/cleanups/bigsweep.php

Walk at Guilford Courthouse National Military Park Saturday, October 10 at 10 am Meet us at one of Greensboro's best walking spots! The Boy Scouts will share what they have learned about history. All ages are welcome! For more information call Charity Neave Johnson at 373-2015.

Teen Tech Talk: Geocaching and Orienteering. Thursday, October 15 at 7 pm
Glenn McNairy Branch
The boy scouts will talk about how to use GPS to find your way and to find other cool stuff. Parents, this is a great opportunity for your teens to increases their STEM skills. For Teens!

NeighborWoods: Community Tree Planting Program Saturday, November 7 at 10 am NeighborWoods Right Plant, Right Place Program is a partnership with Greensboro Beautiful, the City of Greensboro, and Guilford County Cooperative Extension and affected neighborhoods. Register with Greensboro Beautiful, to volunteer: http://greensborobeautiful.org/treeplantings/neighborwoods.php

GREENSBORO Beautiful
Make it. Keep it.

This program is sponsored by

Greensboro Public Library

www.greensborolibrary.org

GREENSBORO Public Library FOUNDATION

FRIENDS • OF THE GREENSBORO Public Library